Radio by and for Saint John

Membership Opportunities

Local FM is the only open-format community radio station in Saint John and is a member driven and operated organization. Membership is open to all members of the Greater Saint John Community and allows individuals to engage with and support the diverse communities of Saint John.

Becoming a Local FM member gives you access to:

- Advanced technical training
- professional broadcast/recording equipment.
- Local FM's diverse, and extensive music library.
- Musical industry, public speaking, and journalism skills.
- Engagement with the Saint John artistic and creative communities.

For an annual fee of only $25!

Here's what our members can do

Programming

Host a musical program.

Host a spoken word program.

Interview artists, bands, authors, activists, experts and other individuals.

Share your passions with your community!

Production

Script, voice, and create Public Service Announcements, event promos, station IDs, and advertisements.

Develop radio plays, documentaries, and other special content.

Hone your audio-engineering skills and create mixtapes and demos.

Promotion

Help design Local-FM merchandise.

Write press releases.

Produce Local FM's annual Zine.

Update Local FM's website and social media.

Attend, organize, and even host events!

Music Library

Curate new Canadian music for our library and broadcast.

Write and publish album reviews on new releases.

Contact and coordinate with record labels and independent Canadian musicians.

Once you've decided to become a member, all you'll need to do is contact Local FM's staff to arrange time for your orientation! All members are required to go through the same orientation, before receiving more specific training about the activity/activities they want to pursue!

We encourage you to contact us at any moment if you have questions or want more information on the different opportunities available to Local FM members.
